Meeting Topic: Coolidge: The Life Behind the Ghost Town

Presented by: Ayme Swartz, Silver Bow County and Ciara Pares Kempf, Historian/Writer

Once a bustling mountain company town, Coolidge comes to life again through newly uncovered photographs and personal stories of its former residents. Presenters Ayme Swartz and Ciara Pares Kempf will explore what life was like for the people of Coolidge during its 1920s heyday and share insights into a new interpretive plan designed to enhance the visitor experience at the ghost town. Ciara, based in Anaconda, specializes in uncovering the untold stories and underrepresented communities of the West and is an active member of the Big Hole Valley Historical Society. Ayme works for the U.S. Forest Service and serves as a Historic Preservation Commissioner for Silver Bow County.
